President's Message

Adele Niblack, Co-chair Vice President, started off our October's meeting with a fashion show; the clothing line all had some sort of quilting in the garments, but the real show were all the quilts in the background. Then I read a brief history of Thimble and Thread Quilt Guild's 45 years. The next time you get to attend a meeting please see me, I handed out pens, commemorating our 45 years.

Adele then ran the program collecting numerous ideas from the members for ideas for our December meeting, (which the December meeting is on the FIRST Friday, December 2, 2022, not the 2nd Friday of the month). In addition to a written ballot to be completed by members, she then asked for ideas, topics, and teachers that we would like to see for future programs or workshops.

Finally, a few members brought some of their favorite tools to show. We had Free Table and Fabric Raffle back after a few months and it was fun to see that both Attendance Price items and Fabric Raffle had a Halloween Theme. Our annual retreat will be held at the end of October and hope those in attendance will have a great time and we get to see some of the creations they make for Show and Tell.

The annual budget for July 2022 - June 2023 was in the newsletter and received approval through voice vote of the membership in attendance.

Our next meeting is on Friday, November 11, 2022 at 7:00pm, doors open at 6:30 pm at Shrewsbury Community Center, and our program will be given in person by Miriam Murphy, Associate Textile Conservator of the St. Louis Art Museum.

This weekend don't forget Loose Threads' Quilt Show "Celebrate with Quilts 2022," November 5 and 6, 2022 at St. Charles Community College and Cornerstone United Methodist Church Quilt Show, October 1, 10 am - 3 pm, O'Fallon, MO.

Respectfully Submitted

Denise Poepsel, President

NOVEMBER MEETING

The Associate Textile Conservator at the St. Louis Art Museum, Miriam Murphy, will share her knowledge of textile and quilt conservation at the next Thimble and Thread Guild meeting on Friday evening, November 11. Her presentation, including slides from her work, will be about art conservation with a focus on textiles and best practices for caring for and displaying special textiles and quilts.

Miriam Murphy has been with the museum since 2017. She is a graduate of Wellesley College and has her Master of Arts in Textile and Costume Conservation from the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City.

Following graduation, she was a Fellow at the Smithsonian's Museum Conservation Institute, then Assistant Conservator in the Costume Institute at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City. She returned to her hometown of St. Louis in 2015 to work as a conservator in private practice before joining the St. Louis Art Museum.

December Guild Meeting Date Changed to First Friday

The Shrewsbury Community Center is not available on the second Friday in December because of the Shrewsbury Holiday Festival. The December Guild meeting will be on the first Friday, December 2.

The Board of Directors approved this change via email vote.

Thimble and Thread Quilt Guild Workshop

Saturday, January 21, 2023, 1:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Minutes of the Thimble and Thread Quilt Guild October 14, 2022

The meeting began at 7:02 PM

Denise announced Adele to introduce the evening's program. A lively discussion of "Where do we want the Guild to go in the future?" ensued. Suggestions and ideas were recorded for use by the Program committee.

Committee announcements:

- Retreat – Susan Sanders. Retreat still has openings.
- Workshops – Susan Sanders for Cindy Clifton. Jane Unger-Baumstark will present painting
- fabric to use in quilts.
- Membership – LaDonna Patterson. 27 members attended and there were three guests.
- Fabric Raffle – Kay Lottes. Member donation from Kathy Sherrick.
- Charity Quilts – Leigh Anne Huckaby for Jeanette Oesterly. Collecting Charity quilts. Kits are available. Donating to Home Sweet Home and Sweet Babies.

Break

The Business meeting was called to order at 8:31 PM.

Old business

There was much positive feedback from Ricky Tims' program. People found it motivating. There was a suggestion to send a card of appreciation to him from the Guild.

Equipment update – There should be 12(?) Rubbermaid totes of drapes. Art Kruse and Jeanette Oesterly should have them.

New business

The minutes of the September guild meeting as published in the newsletter were approved. Kathy Sherrick made the motion and Ruth Grimes seconded.

The proposed budget for fiscal year 2022-2023 was discussed. The discussion included a clarification of the costs of the Ricky Tims Special Event. The budget was approved. Kathy Sherrick made the motion and Leigh Anne Huckaby seconded.

The December meeting has been moved to December 2, 2022 in our usual venue due to a conflict with Shrewsbury events.

The website has been updated. Good job and kudos to our managers!

The newsletter deadline is October 21, 2022.

The next meeting is November 11, 2022.

Show and Tell

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Cynthia B Neville - Secretary

Membership Report

We had 27 members and 3 guests at the October meeting. Welcome guests!

Thanks to 2 members for the wonderful Halloween attendance prizes! Thanks also to those of you who are continuing to donate items for prizes. We especially need patterns, quilting notions, and the like. Right now I do have a good supply of books, but current books are always welcome!

La Donna Patterson
